Expressions of Interest to be part of Community Advisory Groups in the Western Local Land Services region

Expression of Interest for Community Advisory Groups

The Expression of Interest must be hand delivered, emailed or posted.

Expression of Interest process:

Complete this Expression of Interest (EOI) form by filling out the personal details, answering the following questions (up to half a page for each) and providing your referee information.

Purpose of the Groups:

The Western Local Board Community Advisory Groups are high level advisory groups of key community stakeholder representatives that provide advice to assist Western Local Land Services in its delivery of services and functions. The Groups will consist of ratepayers in the Western region with the provision to appoint up to two non-rate paying community members who must reside within the region.

Please ensure you have read and understood the Terms of Reference documentation, which can be downloaded from www.ils.nsw.gov.au/western or picked up at any Western Local Land Services office.
